Brief introduction of your research experience: I am specialized in chemical reaction engineering, materials and environmental engineering. I have worked eight years as a teacher at Shaanxi Institute of Technology (China) and I did my PhD in Northwest University (China). My PhD was preparation, characterization and properties of highly efficient photocatalysts of silver phosphate and its heterojunctions. The aim was to obtain the materials with a high photocatalytic activity, apply them in the treatments of photocatalytic degradation of MB and removal NO_x, and propose the corresponding photocatalytic enhancement mechanisms.
